

THE HARMOMETER

Draw a line to place each type of harm on the harmometer - is it high or low risk?

- - Using a small knife
- - Carrying large six inch knife to scare off other gangs
- - Stabbing someone in the bum
- - Carrying a knife for protection
- - Keeping it to yourself that your friend is carrying a knife
- - Getting someone under 16 to carry a knife for you
- - Reporting someone carrying a knife
- - Telling someone you're worried because you've been threatened
- - Asking someone to help you out because your friends are getting more heavily involved in violence
- - Getting a bit drunk on a night out and going home while the going is good
- - Totally losing it on a night out and taking it out on someone that you don't like
- - Losing the head with your friend because they've told you they have a knife
- - Getting your friends to help you 'send a message' to someone you think has done you wrong
- - Sending hate messages by phone to someone you can't stand
